

Obituary

Born: Saturday, May 26, 1990

Died: Friday, February 1, 2019

"But I trust in You, LORD. I say, "You are my God," the course of my life is in Your power.... "

Psalm 31: 14-15

HIS ENTRANCE:

On May 26, 1990 Brandon Jeriel Hale made his entrance into this world. He was the second son but proved to be second to none! (son of Linda and JW Hale, Jr.). He embraced life head on. Through all of its ups and downs, he was determined to succeed.

Educated in the City of Gadsden School System and shaped by the challenges of life, Brandon developed a quick-thinkers' attitude which propelled him forward in life.

Following a rich spiritual heritage, Brandon acknowledged his belief in God and was baptized.

HIS DEPARTURE:

With life and hope still in his future, he decided to take a short rest that took him into Eternity. On February 1, 2019 somewhere between rest and rising, he met Peace!

No long goodbyes, no mincing of words... "Not his style"....

He answered the soft whisper of his name and left the pains of this world in exchange for Rest of Eternity.
