

Obituary

Born: Thursday, May 22, 1952

Died: Tuesday, June 11, 2019

Maxine Thomas, affectionately known as "Mac", was born May 22, 1952 to George & Helen Thomas, Sr. in Gadsden, Ala.

She gave her life to Christ at an early age & enjoyed a wonderful, personal relationship with the Lord.

She was a graduate of Carver High School, class of 1970.

She retired from the Department of Human Resources after over 25 years of service. Maxine was a Master Poet who's writings could move your soul. You could often find her sitting on her front porch, especially if it was raining. She loved the rain and she loved music. On June 11, 2019, she answered the Lord's call.

She was preceded in death by her parents, George & Helen Thomas, Sr., sister Rosie Woods & brothers Jimmy "Eggie" Thomas and Raymond Whorton, Sr.

She is survived by her children LaSondra (Tavious) Hill, Atlanta, GA; son Jabbar (Blu) Belyeu, Fort McClendon, Ala. The loves of her life, her grandchildren Jerome' R. Holston, Chicago, IL., Mi'Yachta & Ja'Bria of Gadsden, Keyshawn, Malachi, & Mya of Ohatchee; Brothers George (Lucille) Thomas, Jr., Gadsden; John (Nikki) Thomas, Silver Springs, Maryland; Robert Whorton, Sr., Michigan; Richard Whorton, Gadsden. Sisters Carrie Stewart, Jamaica, NY; Mildred Woody & Helen Thompson, Gadsden; Marlina (Tony) Marshall, Piedmont; god sons Johnny (Veronica) Huff, Jr. and DeWayne Huff. Special nieces Monica Thomas-Jones and Deanna Woody-Jones. Special nephews Jerome Woody, Wayne Thomas, Cedric Thomas and Andre Jones, Jr.; and a host of other nieces, nephews, family and friends. She was a survivor and a realist. Her favorite quote was, "And, that's a fact, Jack!"
